Trace It worksheet

Trace It: pick one historical event, then trace it through four questions. Then get your summary by email.

Choose an event (tick one, or write your own):

☐ Reconstruction and the Enforcement Acts (1870 to 1877)
☐ W.E.B. Du Bois's "An Appeal to the World" (1947)
☐ Reparations: the record of past repayments
☐ Project 2025
☐ My own event: _____

Four steps, each with a space to write:

Policy: What did the laws say, and who had to enforce them?

People: Who held power, who lost it, and who pushed back?

Profit: Who benefited when the outcome went one way?

Pattern: Where do you see this move again?

Want more practice? Try the free Pattern Recognition Challenge, five cases to trace on your own. Smart Brown Girl, www.thesmartbrowngirl.com